

Sarine Website Privacy Policy

Sarine respects each individual user's right to personal privacy. This Privacy Policy sets out Sarine's policy regarding the safeguarding and use of personal information that Sarine collects and receives through our websites (collectively the "Website").

The term "personal information" as used herein means any information that may be used, either alone or in combination with other information, to personally identify or contact an individual, including, but not limited to, a name, a personal profile, an email address, a home or other physical address, business names or associations, products and services ordered.

Please note that your personal information may be stored and processed on our computers and third-party servers located throughout the world. We employ commercially reasonable efforts to store and transmit your personal information in a safe, confidential and secure environment. However, we do not commit to any particular privacy regime. If you object to your personal information being transferred or used as described in this Privacy Policy, please do not open an account, register for, use or provide any data or details through the Website.

This Privacy Policy may be revised over time as new features are added. Any amendments to our Privacy Policy will be posted on our Website. Such changes will be effective ten (10) days following posting of the revised Privacy Policy on the Website, or otherwise as may be notified together with the update, and your continued use of the Website thereafter shall be interpreted as your acceptance of such changes.

HOW WE COLLECT INFORMATION

We may collect and use personal information in various ways through the Website, including registration forms, inquiry forms, and product transaction forms. We may also collect data relating to scanned or processed objects uploaded to or input into the Website which may include measurements, colors, pricing, clarity, weight, origin, and other data and details. Sarine may collect information from emails sent to Sarine or Sarine employee addresses. We may collect information from your computer and browser, including your IP address, cookie information, and software and hardware attributes.

We may collect information resulting from the provision of products and rendering of services by Sarine, including, but not limited to, scanning, imaging, mapping, measuring of any of our customers' products and/or any other current or future services or products. Additional terms may apply to specific products and services, and such terms will not be deemed to be superseded by this policy.

If you provide us with credit card or other payment information, we or our third-party service providers may be in possession of such information for purposes of executing your transactions, although Sarine does not store such information in our own servers.

By providing information to us via the above channels and/or conducting transactions or making applications with us, you are deemed to have consented to all the terms and conditions of this Privacy Policy, including without limitation, terms relating to the collection, use and disclosure of such information in accordance with this Privacy Policy, as well as the terms pertaining to such specific products and services.

COOKIES

Sarine employs cookies. A cookie is a small text, graphic or flash file that our Web servers place on a user's computer hard drive or other web-based device to act as a unique identifier. Cookies may also enable Sarine to automatically login a user on the Website provided he/she chooses to enable such option. Sarine cookies do not necessarily have an expiration date.

Our cookies may collect personally identifiable information, including the username and password to support optional automatic logon. Cookies may also be used to identify and track transactions introduced by recognized members of the Sarine affiliate or other programs. Information such as pages visited, country, dates and times are also collected via Google Analytics tracking, cookies, flash cookies, automatic logging files, and other similar methods.

Most browsers allow you to control cookies, including whether or not to accept them and how to remove them. You may set most browsers to notify you if you receive a cookie, or you may choose to block cookies with your browser.

Sarine and/or our service providers may also collect information about software and online service users such as the IP address of the visiting machine and the computer host name for "geographic" statistical purposes and account verification only; we may also collect information regarding the usage of previously identified software actions and activities for the purpose of piracy protection, and to enable Sarine pay-per-use charging functionality.

Certain products, software and online services sold through Sarine may also monitor license usage or login frequency in accordance with terms of use specifically related to such products or services and are also covered by this notice.

HOW WE USE INFORMATION

Sarine uses information for purposes such as customizing the advertising and content you see, fulfilling your requests for products and services, improving our products and services, contacting you relating to our products and services, development alerts or your account activity, and conduct market research. In addition, information we collect from users may be internally used to create and deliver licenses, access keys and product download files and associated documentation, subscription accounts, instant notifications relating to such transactions, refunds and refund notices, warranty and dispute records, and customer profiles based on browsing or purchasing history, as well as in order to improve our products and services, inter alia to analyze market trends and any other information related to Sarine's global operation products and services.

Sarine does not rent, sell or share your personal information to or with any third party except as provided in this Privacy Policy or with your consent, or under the following circumstances: (a) if we reasonably believe the Website or products and services on the Website have been used in violation of the Website's terms and conditions or to commit unlawful acts, (b) in order to comply with a legal requirement, court order or subpoena or to cooperate with law enforcement or government agencies, (c) if we or any of our group companies is sold or acquired, and in such case we may share information with, or sell or convey information to, the acquirer or anyone acting on its behalf; (d) if Sarine otherwise deems it necessary or appropriate.

All information collected might be used by Sarine on an aggregated non-identifiable basis to determine market trends, pricing, market needs and for statistical analysis.

We may share your information with our group companies, affiliates, joint venture partners and service providers to help coordinate the products and services we provide to you, enforce our Website terms and conditions, and to promote trust and safety.

EXTERNAL LINKS

The Website may include links to third party websites. These sites are governed by their own privacy statements, and Sarine is not responsible for their operations, including but not limited to their privacy policies. Parties submitting information to or through these third party websites should review the privacy statement of these sites before providing them with personally identifiable information.

OPT-OUT PROCESS

Sarine provides an option to users not to provide their information or withdraw their consent at any time by making a request in writing. However in such case Sarine may, at its sole discretion, choose not to provide the products and services for which the information is sought to the opting-out users, or to disable or close the online accounts of such users.

In order to opt-out from receiving particular or general marketing promotions, you may follow the instructions shown near the bottom of any promotional emails you receive or you may manually send your request via email to privacy@sarine.com.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Sarine seeks to maintain the accuracy of user information by providing each user with access to the information about such user and allowing updates to be requested. Registered users may access their own personal information via our login pages, and request updates to inaccuracies they may find. If you wish, you may choose to remove your information from our database by contacting us privacy@sarine.com.

Sarine endeavors to protect your information both in our servers and those of our third-party service providers, as well as on your computer, with one or more of the following industry standard security measures: registry data encryption, data file encryption, secure servers, firewalls, SSL encryption and other proprietary technologies and procedures used to protect consumer privacy. For the storage of your information, Sarine may use Amazon Web Services, which has achieved "ISO 27001 certification" for its Information Security Management System (ISMS), or other similar cloud-based services. For more information on security practices adopted by Amazon Web Services please visit their website at: <http://aws.amazon.com/security/>. If you have any further questions about privacy or security, please contact us by sending an email to: privacy@sarine.com.

Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we will do our best to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security of your information transmitted to our site; any transmission is at your own risk.

PHISHING AND FRAUDULENT COMMUNICATION

Phishing is a scam typically carried out by criminals by means of sending unsolicited email and/or constructing websites that pose as legitimate sites and fraudulently induce users to provide personal information. Sarine does not request personal details, usernames or passwords by email. In the event you receive an email purporting to be from Sarine with such a request, do not provide any such information by email or otherwise. Do not click on hyperlinks to websites which may not be authentic Sarine website. Instead, if you wish to access your account or update personal information, enter the correct URL of the Sarine website directly into your browser. If you are at all suspicious about an e-mail you allegedly received from Sarine, immediately notify us at privacy@sarine.com.

CHILDREN'S PRIVACY

Our Website is not designed to attract children under the age of 13 years. Accordingly, we do not intend to collect personal information from anyone we know to be under 13 years. If we learn that we have collected Personal Information from a child under 13 years, we will delete that information as quickly as possible. If you believe that we might have any such information, please contact us at privacy@sarine.com.

CALIFORNIA PRIVACY RIGHTS

California Civil Code Section 1798.83 permits our customers who are California residents to request certain information regarding our disclosure of Personal Information to third parties for their direct marketing purposes. To make such a request, please send an email to privacy@sarine.com. Please note that we are only required to respond to one request per customer each year.

CALIFORNIA DO NOT TRACK NOTICE:

We do not currently respond or take any action with respect to web browser "do not track" signals or other mechanisms that provide consumers the ability to exercise choice regarding the collection of personally identifiable information about an individual consumer's online activities over time and across third-party web sites or online services. We may allow third parties, such as companies that provide us with analytics tools, to collect personally identifiable information about an individual consumer's online activities over time and across different web sites when a consumer uses the Website.
